you may have a safe & pleasant voyage home & joyful meeting with your friends.

Farewell, Yours most truly & sincerely

Andrew Paton

to accept the will for the deed.

Our friend William Smeal was buried on Tuesday, 22nd. The newspapers sent show the esteem he was held in by his fellow Citizens. During a long life he has fully performed the part of a good & true man, & now rests from his abundant, generous, valuable, labors for the advancement & progress of all mankind.

His mental powers continued clear & active to the close. he truly died in harness.

Mrs Smeal Family are well.

I trust that your health, re established, may long continue & that you may be long spared for usefulness & guidance to your Country & the World.

I send my best regards & wishes to Mr Frank & yourself & trust that

My Dear Friend

I thank Mr Frank for his letter of yesterday enclosing a Card of invitation to the assemblage of friends invited to meet with you at Mr Crosfields, Liverpool, on Friday evening.

I regret extremely being prevented coming on to bid you good bye, having been required to attend tomorrow, two meetings, one of an important nature to our Burgh of Hillhead, the other as one of the Trustees of a deceased friend regarding a Question of moment to his children.

I must reluctantly therefore forego the pleasure of again taking you by the hand & seeing you off & ask you
